Moving right along, footloose and fancy free, another year has taken its place in the pages of Finneytown history. During these 180 days many things have been moving, from inflation to the little things under that cheese pizza in the cafeteria. Both girls and guys soccer teams kicked their ways to the state quarterfinals and the wrestlers moved into a new room with new mats.

The school is slowly sliding down the hill and almost went up in smoke because there was a real fire, an exciting first. Mr. Christoph moved to England in exchange for Ms. Matthews. The band moved out to the sounds of everything from "Mirada" to "Eye of the Tiger". The PAC moved to Scotland with cast and crew for the production of Macbeth.

Cable television moved in while E.T. and An Officer and a Gentleman made their way to blockbuster status in the theaters. In Scholastic Art Awards, two students won awards in their divisions of 65,000 entries. Tom Brush moved into the mayor's office, Dick Celestre into the governor's office and Kennedy moved out of the Presidential race.

In the rest of the cosmos, well, the planets are still moving in circles . . .

15 pound broadswords, without really killing each other (although Macbeth almost got it one night) and instructed the murderers in such unspeakable cruelties as leaping on unsuspecting victims and breaking the necks of young children. David Heimlich (from 5th grade at Whitaker) made his debut on the FHS stage especially to have his neck cracked.

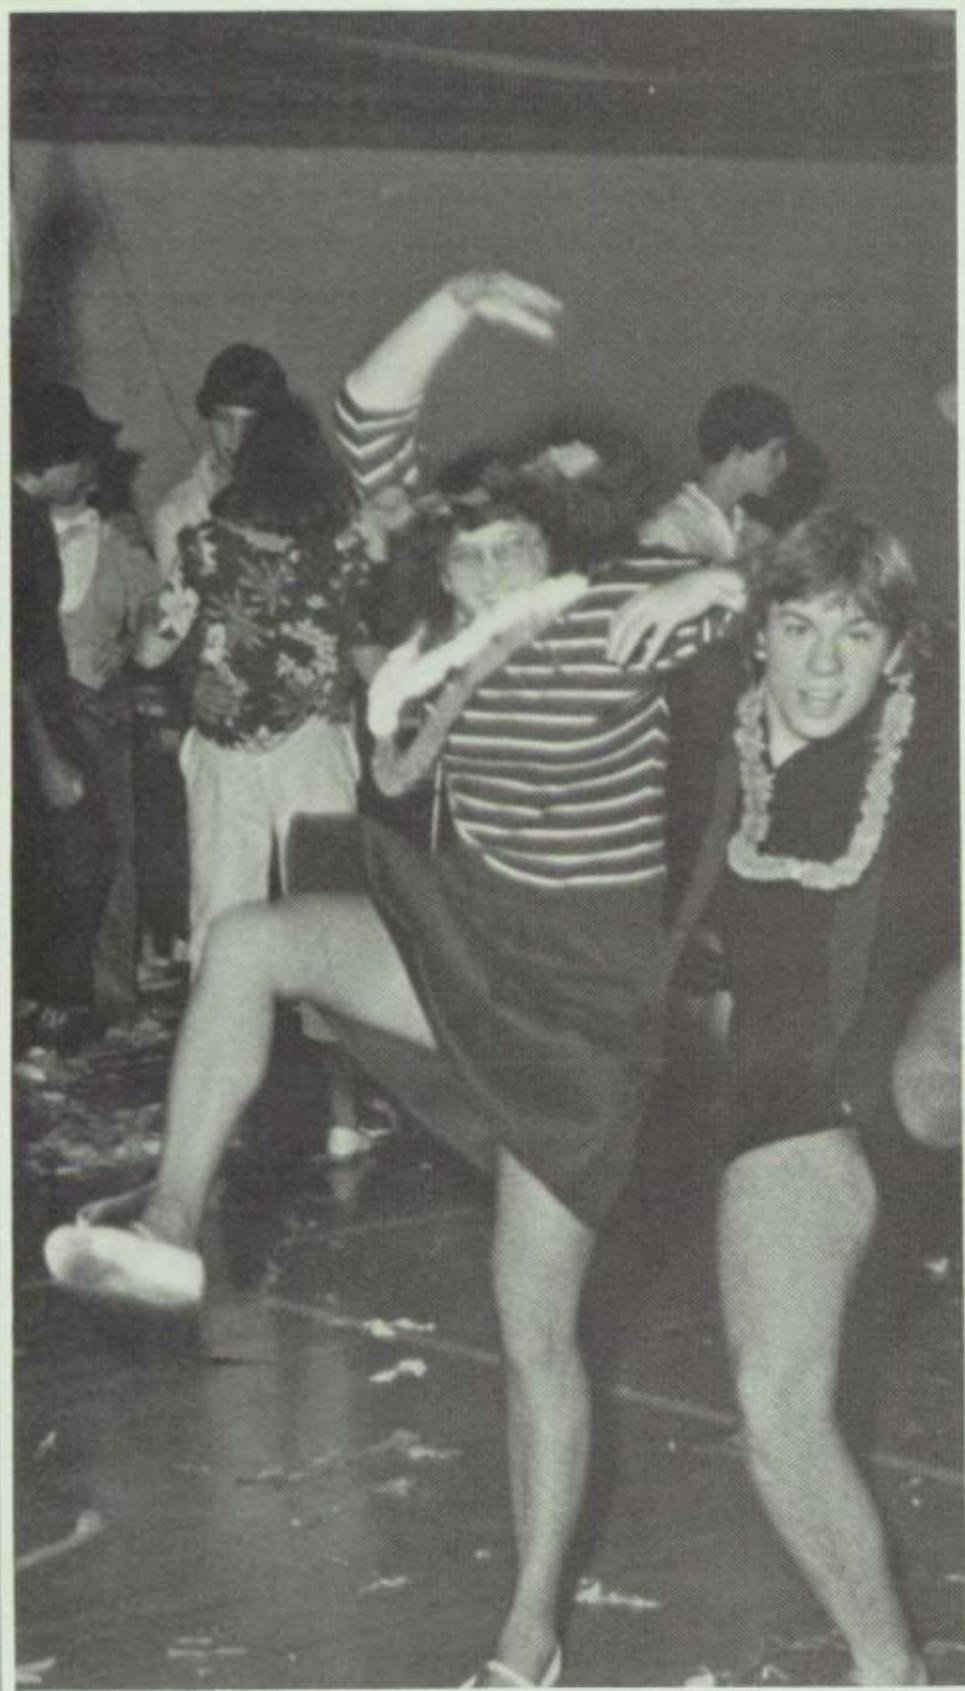

Everyone, the guards to the weird sisters, (and we do mean weird!) the Macbeths themselves, assured this play a place in FHS stage memory.

Special thanks to Mr. Wayne Wright, creative director at Gibson Cards, for his continued help.

On February 26, the gym moved to the islands with the help of the Secondary PTA and FHS took a cruise with the Love Boat Dance. "Full House" entertained, while the tourists danced and competed in games. Most returned having had a good time, but without a tan to showoff. even a few ship's officers present! THE PAJAMA GAME

A Musical Comedy

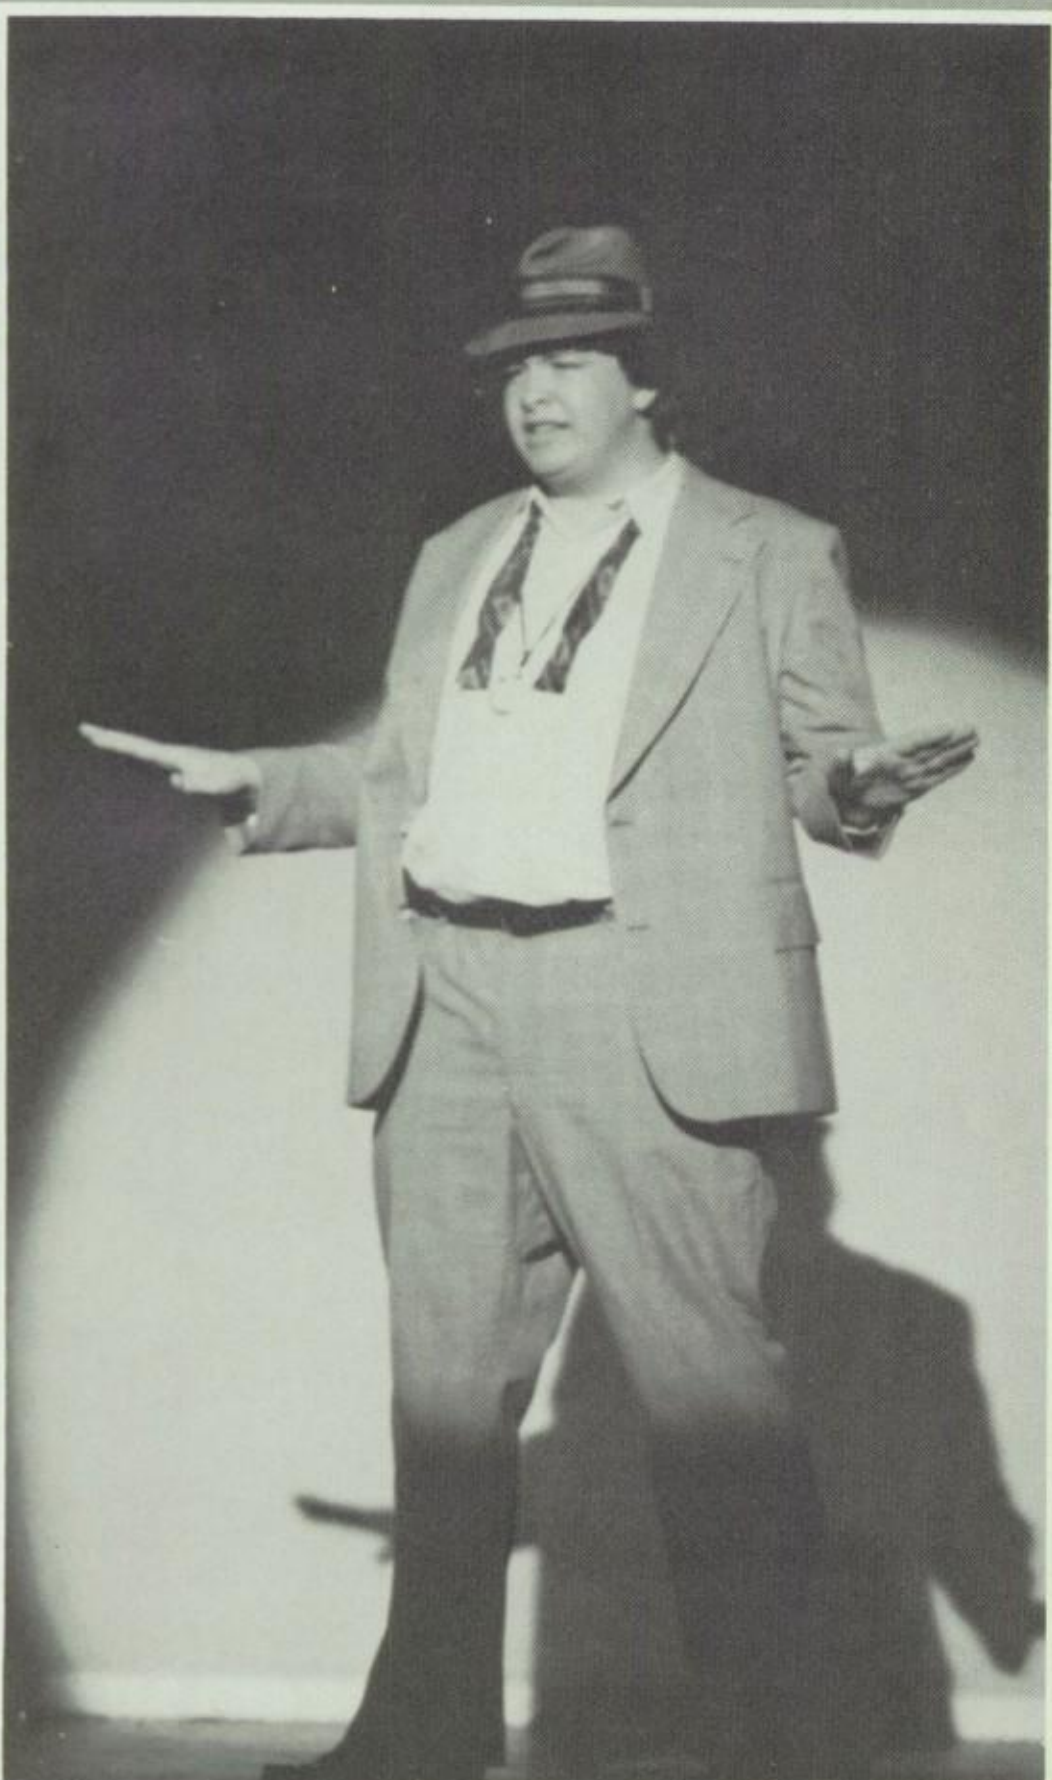

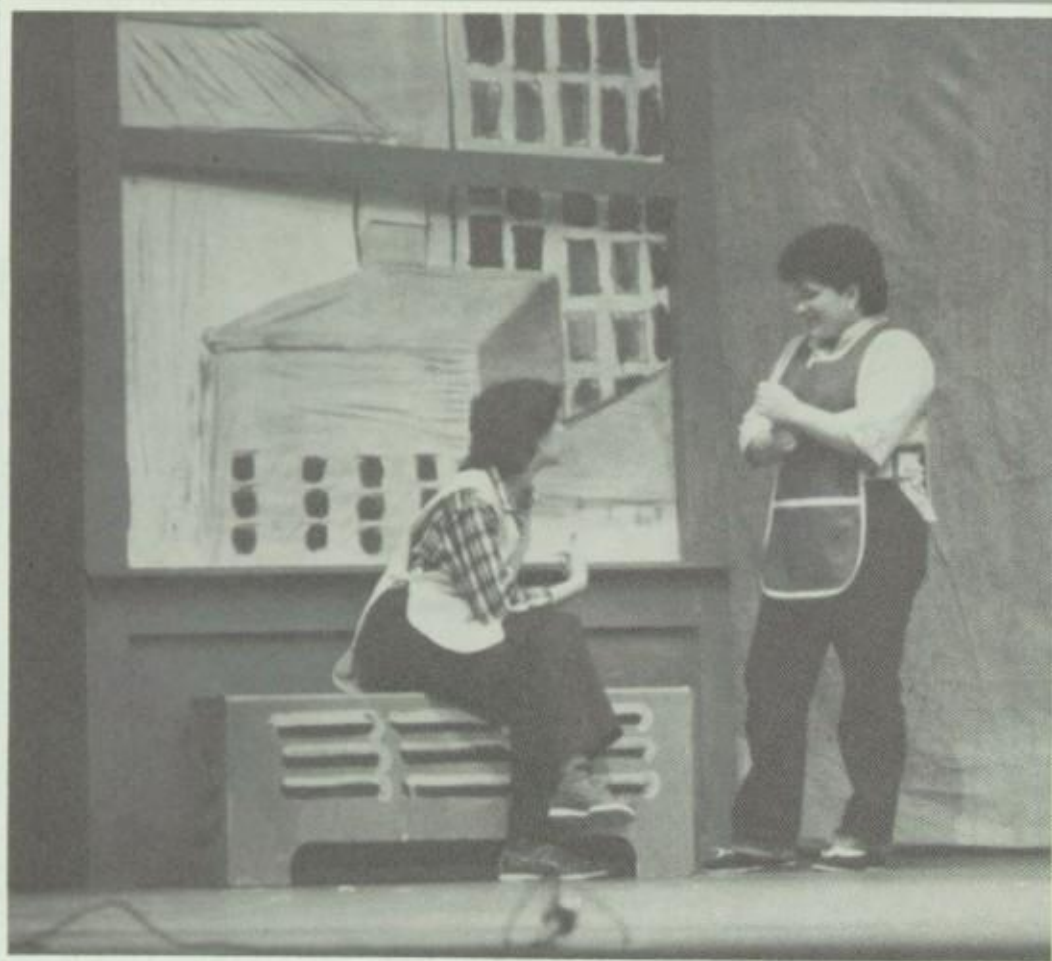

(Based on the novel "7½ Cents" by Richard Bissell)

Music and Lyrics by

RICHARD ADLER and JERRY ROSS

Book by

GEORGE ABBOTT and RICHARD BISSELL

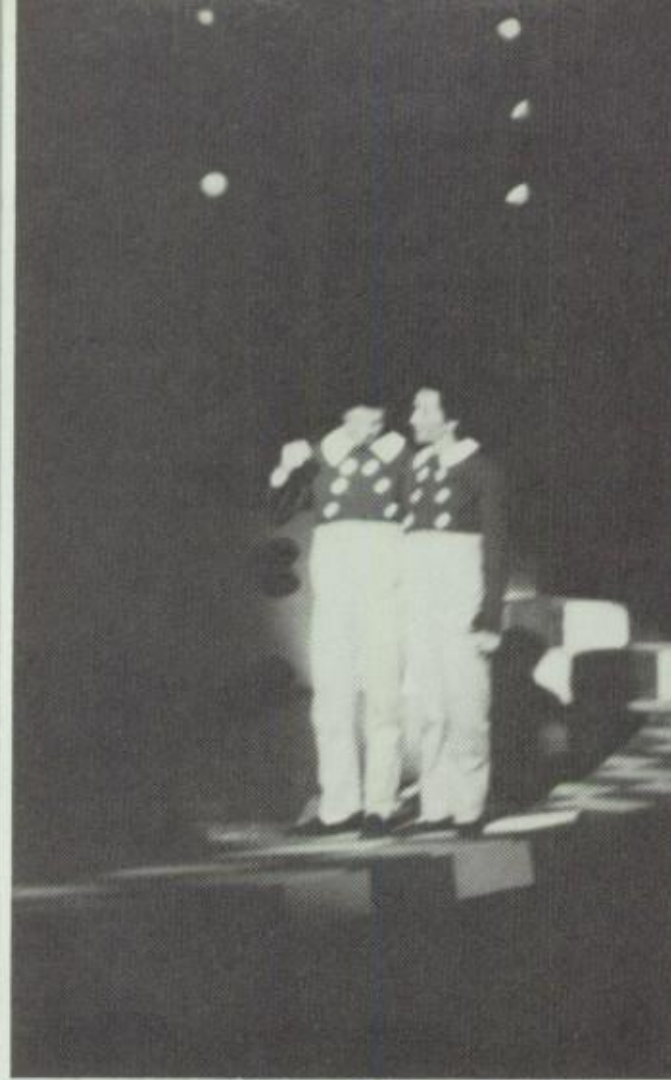

"The pajama game is the game we're in/ and we're proud to be in the pajama game/ we love it . . ." Although they may not have exactly loved it anymore by the time opening night rolled around, cast, crew and orchestra surely had something to be proud about in The Pajama Game. Admittedly, there were hitches, like the forest that suddenly grew in the factory one night or the high notes that got away, but after long hours of work in everything from building the set to learning lines, the final Game was quite a show. The audience was dazzled by such displays of technical expertise as a refrigerator with a light that went on when the door opened and a tape recorder that replayed "Hey There" when it was supposed to. They drooled over the "sexy parts" as Chris and Mary shared one pair of pajamas and they were awed by spectacular dance numbers such as, "Stream Hear" and "Once a Year Pay" with classic Cecil choreography. There were tender love scenes . . . "I love you — corny ain't it?" In short, something for every taste, resulted in a show that was, well . . . totally awesome!!

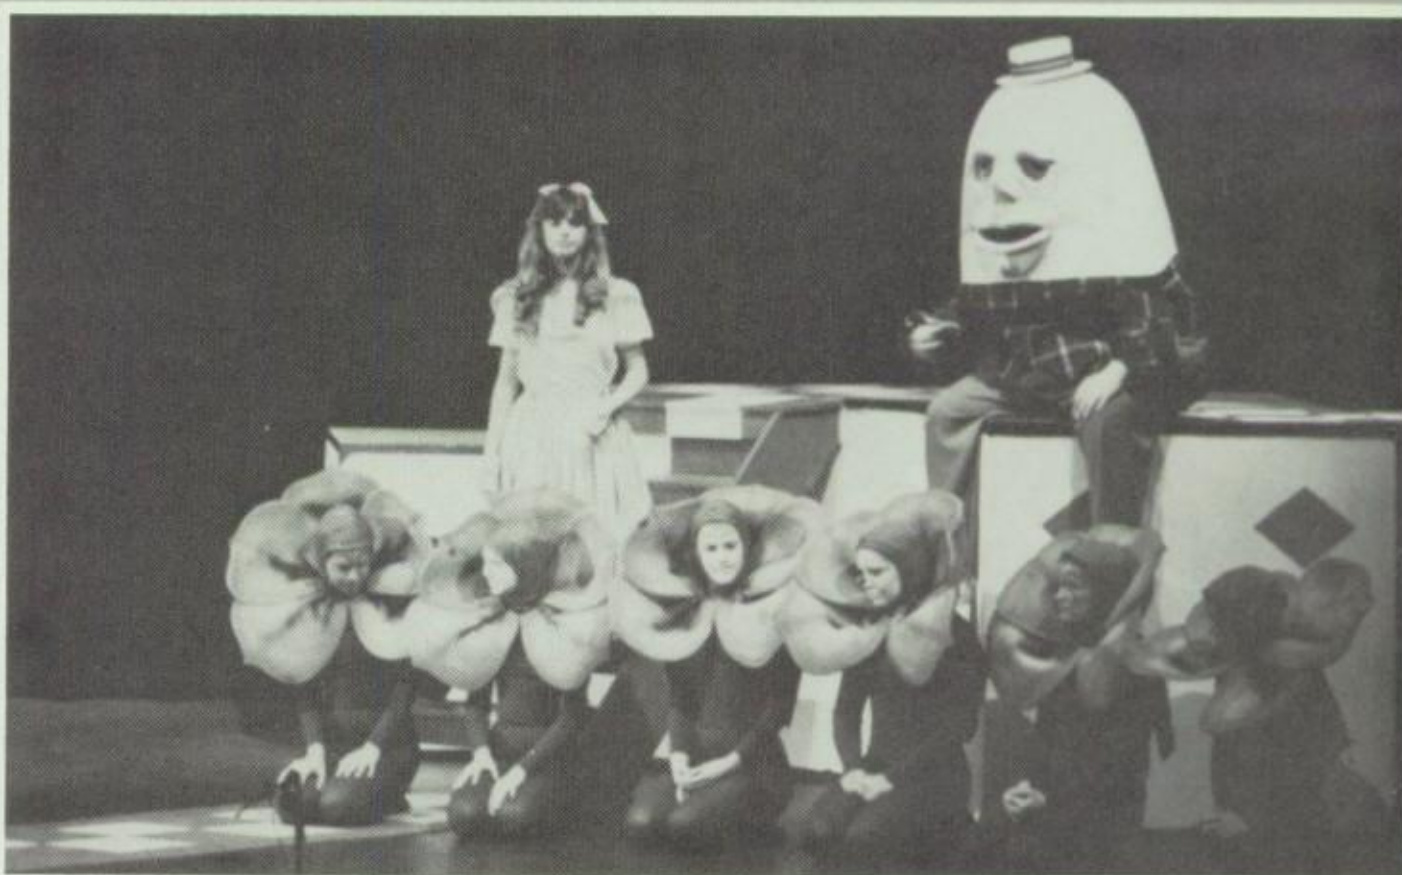

WONDERLAND ALICE IN

Top right: "Say what?!" King Odie dares to contradict Queen Lana. Center left: Nothing seems to phase her majesty. She merely beheads him/her/it. Center right: The Muppets it wasn't, but Rick Rubin did a wonderful Kermit imitation for Alice. Bottom right: You see Shessie, I just want to go home." Then click your heels three times . . .

This time the PAC moved to Wonderland for the final production of 1983, Alice in Wonderland. It was the last show for many seniors and Burr celebrated his 110th show . . . Cast and crew showed once again that no sacrifice is too great for the sake of art as they painted billions of squares, endured hot lights in hot costumes, hung those lights at great risk to life and limb and most amazing of all, put together a show in only 16 days. The audience was awed by the Queen of Hearts and her chest, amused by the Caterpillar who chanted vowels and instructed by the Duchess. With Alice and Chessie they experienced mad tea parties, gnarly Valley flowers, one wild and crazy croquet game and generally had a wonderful time. Hooray for everyone who made it possible!

"Gonna take a sentimental journey,
gonna set my soul at ease.
Gonna take a sentimental journey,
to renew old memories."
And this year's Senior Musical Review renewed old memories for Mom and Dad as they swayed to the beat of Glenn Miller, Tommy Dorsey and Johnny Mercer. Yes, FHS was visited by the Big Band sound and it touched the hearts of all that attended.

Seniors

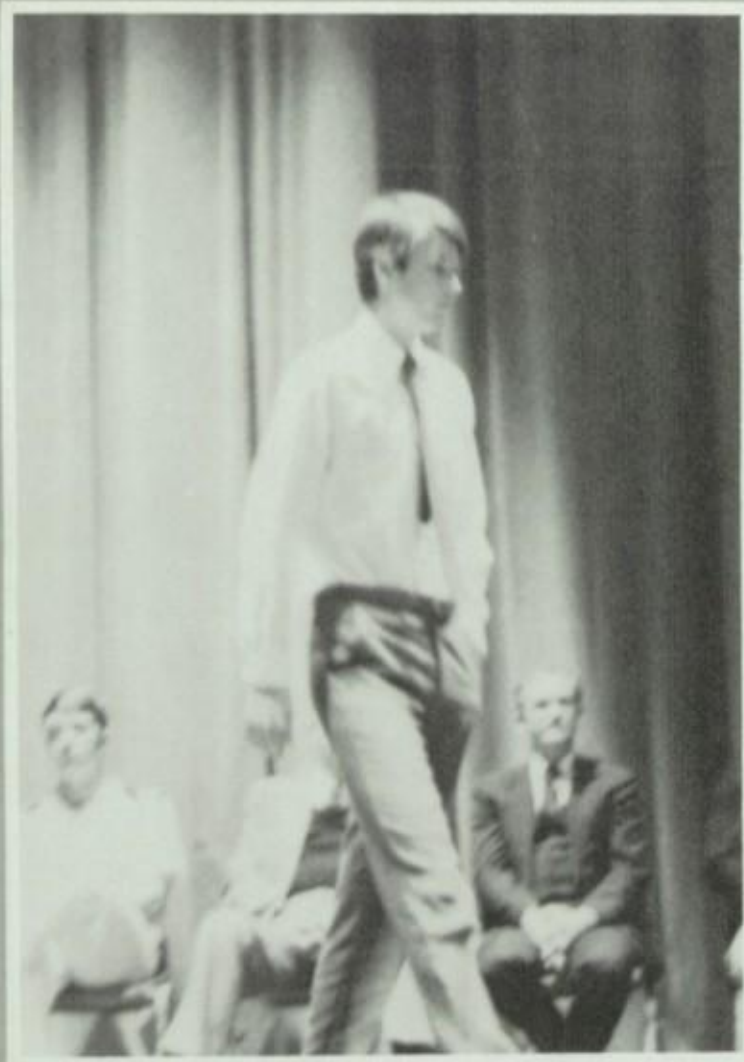

This spring Miss Humbach led a group of Spanish students, faculty members and parents on a week-long tour of Mexico. In the course of the week, the group visited Mexico City, Taxco and Acapulco. They toured cathedrals, pyramids and monuments, as well as spent a glorious two days on the beach at Acapulco. They returned tired, tanned and laden with souvenirs.

"... in the spring becomes the Rose."

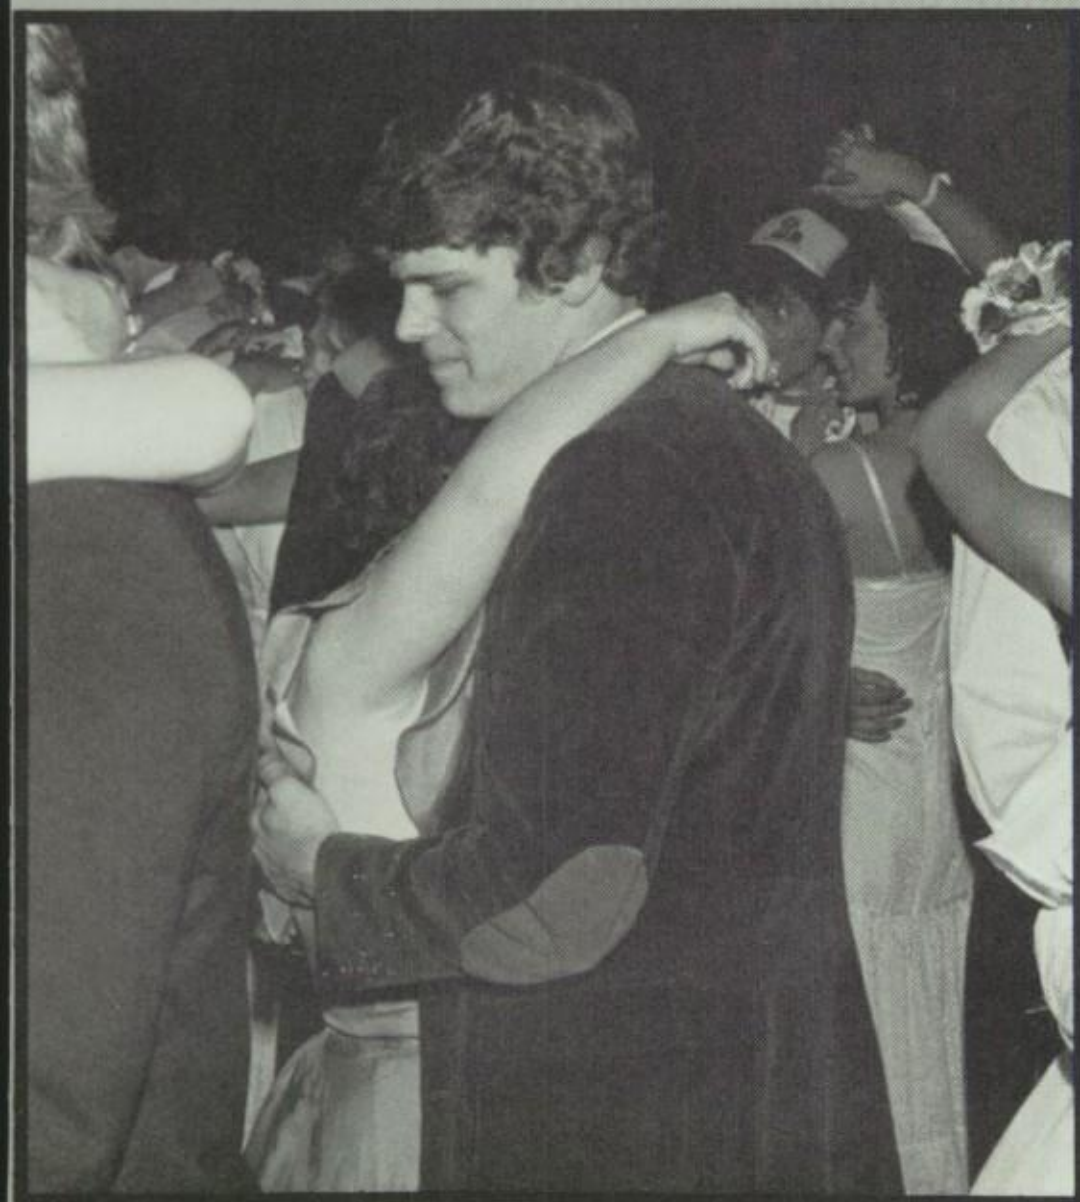

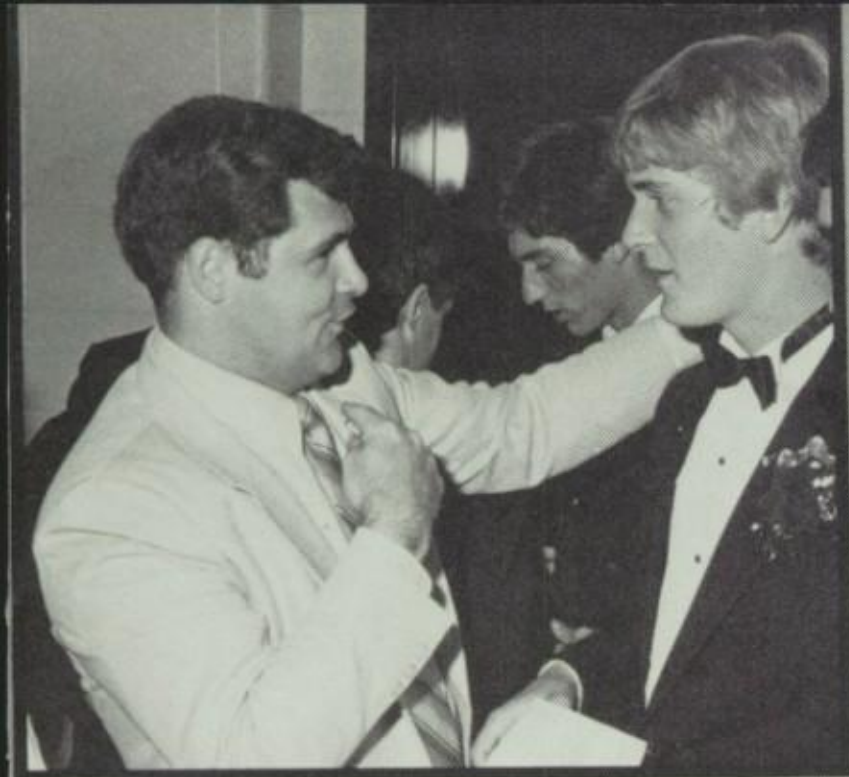

The Rose unfolded at the Convention Center for the FHS Prom this year. Charter Flight provided the music and the junior class did a wonderful job with decorations, including candles, which, unfortunately could not be lit. The souvenir sniffers proved useful in after-prom parties

The dance itself was a big success, as the guys amazed everyone with how well they cleaned up, and Charter Flight provided plenty of slow dances. When all the votes were in, Holly Stevens and Chuck Schlegel were elected Queen and King.

After-prom partying at downtown hotels was fairly calm, as the Westin was still standing on Sunday morning. Finally, who could forget — "If you lost anything at the Prom, please see Mrs. Thomas ..."

This year's girls' soccer team had an outstanding season of 16 wins and 2 losses, backed by Wildcat fans all the way. Finneytown sent 2 players to All-State, All-League, & All-City, as well as one Honorable mention to All-League.

Finneytown's Golf team finished with the best record in years. This year's record was 14-6 and 7-5 in the league. Amy Higgins was the first girl ever voted to Boy's All-star team, and Chip Koehlke was 1st medalist to go to Districts in 10 years. Coach Dickerson said, "Great team attitude, we all had fun". With more team depth, FHS golf should have an even better season next year!

Boys' Varsity Basketball had a successful season of 9 wins, 12 losses. FHS finished second in the Hamilton County National Division, after the graduation of 5 starters from last year's season. Some outstanding players were: Chris Spencer, leading scorer in the league as a sophomore, John Gerbus — all League; Brian Bundy, Al Weiss, Chris Spencer — Hamilton County All League. Chris Spencer, Honorable Mention, All-City. Coach Elliott feels that next year the team will continue to improve through experience.

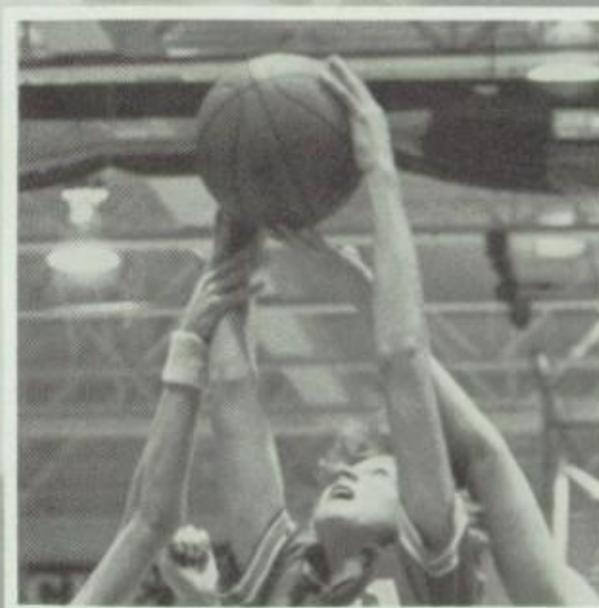

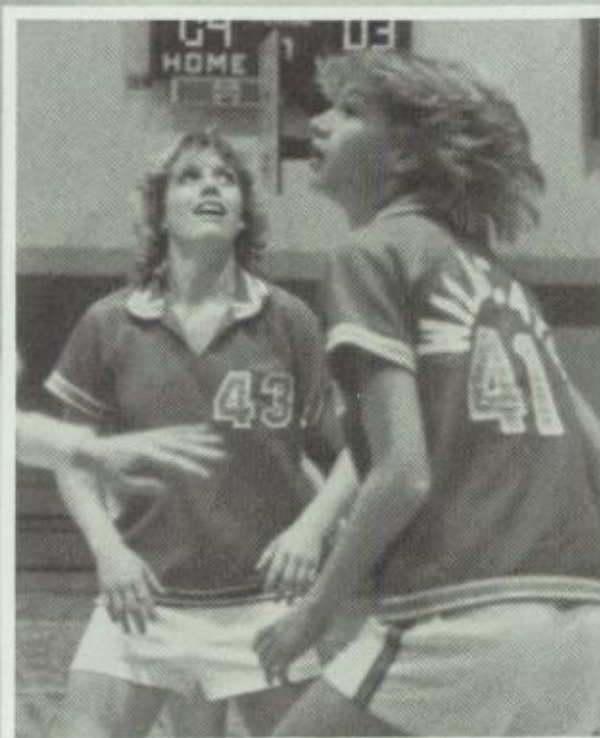

The Lady Cats had a successful season of 4-15, reserve having a 2-13 record. Coach Pererson felt that this was a growing year during which the team learned a great deal. The team was young, but that has promise for a good season next year. The team hopes to improve its record.

Pam Lechner swims for Finneytown High School and the Pepsi Marlins. Her workout schedule involves very early morning practices as well as daily after school and weekends. Pam's achievements are impressive. She swims the 100 and 200 meter backstroke. Pam is currently ranked 17th in the country and moving up.

For the future, Pam is trying to qualify for a fall swimming scholarship as well as a US team going to Japan. Then we have the 1984 Olympics.

To qualify, her times in June 1984 must be in the top 30. Pam has one year before the trials and she has already started to train.

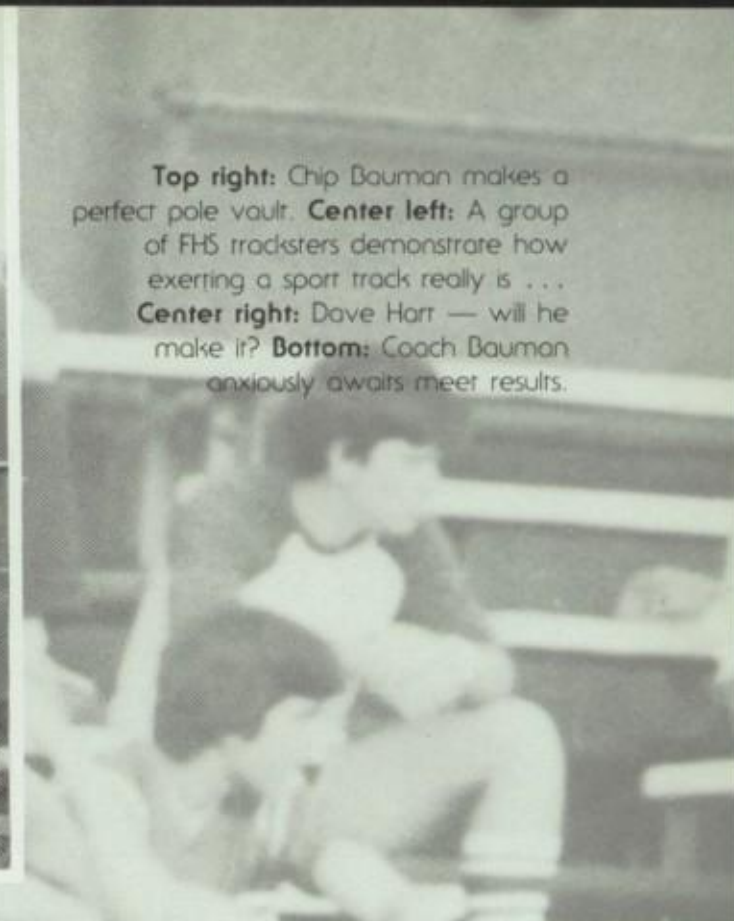

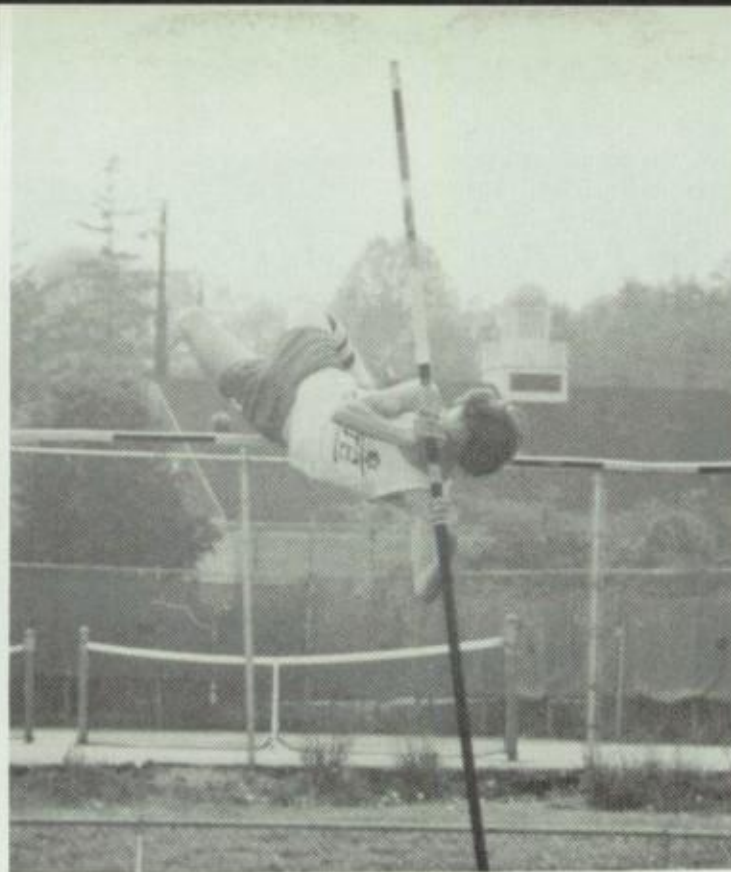

We'd like to thank Pam for representing our school so well, and wish you good luck and fast times for the future.

Moving in from England for a year, Ms. Matthews took over Mr. Christoph's classes — Advanced Algebra and Trig as well as seventh grade. She has found Finneytown . . . different. School in England starts a year later and has an hour and a half for lunch — which makes Finneytown hours a shock. The kids wear uniforms to school instead of jeans and don't play football — things like lacrosse and rugby instead. She found us friendlier than in England, but also much noisier in class!!

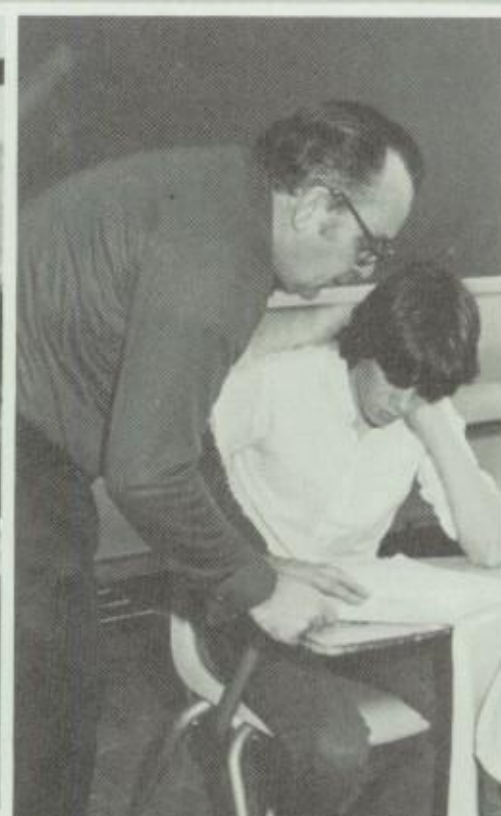

She has visited a lot of places in the U.S., including Washington, New York and Chicago. This summer, she plans to visit St. Louis, the Grand Canyon, Las Vegas, Disneyland, and San Francisco to name just a few. She also plans to meet some friends to visit Niagra Falls and Canada. Finally, on August 12, she leaves the U.S. for England again. Certainly Finneytown has been lucky to have her reach here, and we hope she enjoyed her stay as much as we've enjoyed her.

Band, Ensemble, and Concert Choir moved south to Nashville for several days in April to attend the American Music Festival at Opryland. Everyone who stayed home envied the trips to Hermitage, home of President Andrew Jackson, and Nashville's full scale replica of the Parthenon. They felt better when they heard about the 5:45 am wake up calls and the vintage truck stop food.

Energy was high in all performances, especially for Ensemble, who sang and danced twice as fast as usual. Everyone expected them to win at least first place, but, disapprovingly, neither Band nor Ensemble placed. On the bright side, Choir won second place in class AA; there was much rejoicing.

COUNT ON THE OWL
24 HOURS

Forget about rushing to the bank before it closes. Or running out of money on weekends. The Owl lets you make cash withdrawals from your checking or savings account, any time. You can get cash advances from your Central Trust Master Charge account, too. But that's not all you can do.

You can make deposits by cash or check to your checking or savings. Transfer funds from one account to another. Even find out your current account balance by using the special Owl Self-Service Balance Inquiry phone located in your bank lobby.

David and Natalie Rothgeb

To put it very mildly, this was a year of upheaval, confusion and radical change. There was a changing of the guard, with Mr. McHugh retiring as our long-suffering advisor and Mrs. Rothgeb jumping in as our fearless leader.

Between selling ads, drawing layouts, selling ads, disagreeing with our rep, selling ads, missing deadlines, and selling more ads, our staff swelled and shrank in numbers from a veritable mob in September to a mere handful in mid-June. It was a tough year: lots of tears and frustration, lots of threats and broken promises. But through it all, we stood strong. And finally, succeeded.

But enough reminiscences. As editor, I appreciate all those who helped us in this giant project, and would like to take this chance to thank them. Mr. Dingamon for getting tough; Mr. Hopkins for the Kleenex and understanding ear. And we owe everything to Mrs. Rothgeb. Without her tireless help we would never have made it. And our thanks would not be complete without thanking Jim Jervis, who got us out of a very tight spot.

Goodbye, Finneytown; good luck, and God bless. And Natalie Rose, we love you!!
